

North Carolina School for the Deaf— Images of History

Help create a pictorial history of NCSD by sharing your photographs and memories of NCSD. Bring your photos to be scanned & returned while you wait. ASL interpreters will be provided.

Saturday, October 6 9:00 am - 12 noon

@ NCSD Historical Museum

-or-

Monday, October 15 4:00 pm - 7:00 pm

@ Morganton Public Library

Other times available by appointment.*

Your photographs will be used for a special program, exhibit, & slideshow of the History of NCSD in November at the Burke County Public Library.

For more information or appointments call 828-764-9266.

Sponsored by the Burke County Public Library in partnership with the NCSD Historical Museum.

This program is supported by grant funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the federal Library Services and Technology Act as administered by the State Library of North Carolina, a division of the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources.

