MARCH 14- HAPPY SOUNDS

Up, down and all around—wiggle, jiggle, jump! Today is a day for movement! First we'll read If You're Happy and You Know It by Raffi then it's time to make lots of wonderful noise. It's music day! Everybody can make music of some kind!

MARCH 21- SPRING

Wake up, flowers! Wake up, animals! It's Spring! Let's wiggle and sing as we read Over in the Garden by Jennifer Ward. Then we get to make beautiful tissue flower pictures to take home and hang to welcome spring.

MARCH 28- ALL ABOUT ME

Fingers, tummies and feet- giggly, tickly body parts. Today we will learn and sing "all about me". Get ready to do some giggling. We will read Here are my Hands by Bill Martin. Since we love to make our bodies move and shake, we'll have another music and instrument day!
